

A Venn diagram consisting of three concentric circles. The innermost circle is green and contains the word "symplectic". The middle circle is red and contains the words "volume-preserving". The outermost circle is blue and contains the words "all neural networks". The circles are nested, indicating that the set of symplectic networks is a subset of volume-preserving networks, which is a subset of all neural networks.

symplectic

volume-preserving

all neural networks